Child Survival in Rural Areas - Nooka Rajendra Prasad 1997-01-01

Ritusamharam - Kalidasa 2018-04-12

Perhaps the most lively and exuberant of Kalidasa's extant works, Ritusamharam is a glorious ode to nature's bounty and the enduring emotional response it evokes in mankind as a whole. Recounted as a celebration of the passing seasons, it is a feast for the senses, capturing the myriad facets of love and longing in a kaleidoscope of sumptuous imagery: the mischievous moonlight that, like a pining lover, steals glances at sleeping maidens; the monsoon-bloated rivers that rush to the sea with a lustful urgency; the flame of lovemaking that is kindled anew at the onset of winter; the heady scent of mango blossoms that makes even the most unyielding of hearts quiver. Even animals, big and small, are swept into the playful pattern of the great poet's lyrical homage. A.N.D. Haksar's supple and spirited translation is accompanied by an absorbing introduction and notes that shed further light on this extraordinary work.

The Professor's Quarters - Alice D'Alessio 2014-06

The Clearing Folk School is where Norbert Blei taught a weeklong writing workshop every summer for nearly 40 years. The school, built by landscape architect Jens Jensen, is situated atop one of the most beautiful bluffs in Door County. This is Norbert Blei's Door County, the subject of much of his writing. Nearly two years prior to his death in 2013, Norbert invited some of his long-time students (all accomplished writers themselves) to contribute essays to a book he intended to write about his years as a teacher at the Clearing. The book would be his personal perspectives on teaching, students, and the importance of place, specifically The Clearing. The Professor's Quarters is a collection of those student essays compiled and edited by long-time Blei students and writers: Alice D'Alessio, Albert DeGenova, Jude Genereaux, and Susan O'Leary. This is a book about love. The love of a teacher, a place, and the writing life.

Hallucinations - Oliver Sacks 2012-11-06

"Illuminate[s] the complexities of the human brain and the mysteries of the human mind." —The New York Times To many people, hallucinations imply madness, but in fact they are a common part of the human experience. These sensory distortions range from the shimmering zigzags of a visual migraine to powerful visions brought on by fever, injuries, drugs, sensory deprivation, exhaustion, or even grief. Hallucinations doubtless lie behind many mythological traditions, literary inventions, and religious epiphanies. Drawing on his own experiences, a wealth of clinical cases from among his patients, and famous historical examples ranging from Dostoevsky to Lewis Carroll, the legendary neurologist Oliver Sacks investigates the mystery of these sensory deceptions: what they say about the working of our brains, how they have influenced our folklore and culture, and why the potential for hallucination is present in us all.

Standing on an Apple Box - Aishwaryaa Rajinikanth Dhanush 2016-12-10

Director, dancer, goodwill advocate for the United Nations: Aishwaryaa Rajinikanth Dhanush is so much more than the daughter of a legendary actor, or the wife of southern cinema's biggest star. Growing up in Bangalore and then Madras, in a household that resolutely kept out any hint of her father's superstardom, she was a quiet, introverted child whose greatest pleasure was a visit to Marina Beach and an occasional meal out. It was not cinema but law that became a preoccupation when she started thinking about college and career - but fate, and her mother, had other plans for her. Aishwaryaa writes with disarming honesty about life as Rajinikanth's daughter, of falling in love and raising two boys with Dhanush, of fighting her own demons and finding satisfaction in a career of her choice. She reflects on the many roles a woman has to juggle at home and outside - in her case, under the watchful gaze of cameras and celebrity-watchers. Intensely personal, but also inspirational, Aishwaryaa's memoir is an unusually frank insight into growing up in cinema-land. A playful meditation on the joys and difficulties of being a woman in this age, Standing on an Apple Box is as much a celebration of individual fulfilment as it is of family.

Not all ideas will make it in the market place. So how do you know if your idea is the one that will make it to market? THAT IS WHAT THIS BOOK IS ALL ABOUT. There are plenty of Invention Books quoting all the "Rules." This Invention Book does it differently. It is a practical guide with easy straight forward steps that show you "How To" and then instructs you in the fine detail. All written in layman's terms, with full illustrations. Remember you may have a great new invention but if it can't earn any money then put it on the shelf for a rainy day. Ask yourself: "Will anyone buy my idea," or "Will it sell 100,000 or a million items or more?" If your answer is NO to these questions then forget it. Invent another idea. GREAT IDEAS are great because they make a great heap of money. Make sure you fit into this category of "GREAT." START MARKETING YOUR OWN INVENTIONS TODAY
